From Monday JUNE 1, to Monday JUNE 15, 1767.

WHEREAS my ſolicitation in October 1765, which was ſo lowed by a ſuſpenſion of the publication of this Gazette for ſeven months, has been ſo little regarded, by thoſe to whom it was addreſſed, that the payments then together with thoſe ſince made me, have ſcarce proved ſufficient to defray the common expences of a large family, with houſe-rent and journeymen's wages, much leſs to anſwer repeated calls for money where due, and enable me to procure ſupplies of paper in due time; whereby I am become a very great ſufferer: I am compelled to give this notice, to all perſons indebted to me, eſpecially thoſe whoſe accompts are of an old date, that it will not be in my power to give them credit beyond the firſt of Auguſt next, without injuring my credit and family beyond reparation.

PETER TIMOTHY.

His Excellency William Henry Lyttelton, Eſq; will ſet out on Monday next for Portſmouth, to embark on board a man of war, on his embaſſy to Portugal.

A letter from Hamburgh, dated March 24, ſays, "The ſpeedy arrival of 15 or 16000 Ruſſian troops in Poland is no longer to be doubted. We are even aſſured from good hands that the Court of Peterſbourg has ſet forth the motive for ſending them in a declaration lately ſent to Warſaw on his Subject. Theſe forces are to ſupport the confederacy which the Diſſidents are going to form. It is to be preſumed that the other ſide will not ſleep; and therefore we are apprehenſive that the public tranquility is going to be diſturbed in Poland and Lithuania, unleſs ſome conceſſions are made by both parties.

Several extraordinary expreſſes, have this week been diſpatched to the courts of France and Spain.

It is reported, that there will be the greateſt conteſt for members to repreſent the weſtern counties in parliament, at the next general election, that has been known ever ſince the memorable year 1733.

We can aſſure the public, that a pamphlet is now in town, printed in London, which contains many letters wrote by the favourers of the late ſtamp-act in America.—Theſe letters we ſhall favour the public with as ſoon as we can obtain them; but are ſorry they cannot give any pleaſure to a real friend to his country, as they contain more falſehood, malice and ill-will towards America than even a B——d was ever ſuſpected of.

Some men of power among us have affected to cenſure the conduct of New-York, in not making that proviſion for the King's troops that was ſpecified in M—y Bill, when it is notorious, thoſe very gentlemen upon the firſt ſight of ſaid act, expreſſed their utmoſt diſlike of it,—and gave it out publicly as their opinion, that it was full as unconſtitutional and dangerous an attempt upon our rights, as was the ſtamp-act.—Even Mr. S— O—r declared his ſurpriſe, that our patriots were ſo backward to take the alarm.

RUN away from the ſubſcriber, about a fortnight ago, two negro fellows, viz. PETER and SAM: Peter is a young fellow, about five feet ten inches high, well made, and has attended the market for ſome time paſt as a butcher.—— Sam is a mulatto fellow, about twenty years of age, with buſhy hair and full face; had on when he went away, a green coat lined with livery lace: They are both very ſenſible fellows, and well known in town and country. A reward of Twenty-five pounds will be paid for taking Peter; and Five pounds for Sam, upon delivering either of them at my plantation at Stono, or to the warden of the work-houſe. All perſons whomſoever, and particularly all maſters and commanders of veſſels, are cautioned and forewarned, not to harbour, entertain, employ, or carry off the province, either of the ſaid negro fellows, as they will be proſecuted with the utmoſt rigour of the law.

May 16, 1767. HUMPHRY SOMMERS.

WHEREAS my wife ANNA RISH, has without ſufficient reaſon or cauſe abſented herſelf from my bed and board, and I am apprehenſive ſhe may endeavour to run me in debt; this is to forwarn all perſons from truſting her on my accompt, for I am determined to pay no debt of her contracting after this public notice.—— And all thoſe that harbour or entertain her will be proſecuted with the utmoſt ſeverity the law allows of, by JOHN RISH.

Samuel Wiſe,

HAVING declined buſineſs for the preſent, and intending to depart the province for England by the firſt of Auguſt next, begs leave to return his thanks for the favours of his friends; and as he is under an abſolute neceſſity of ſettling his affairs, thoſe accompts remaining unſettled by the firſt day of July next, he will be under the diſagreeable neceſſity of putting into the hands of William Burrows, Eſq.

FRANCIS VARAMBAUT.

Mr. TIMOTHY,

AS Pro and Con, by way of Advertiſement, has appeared twice in your paper, ſigned J——n L——d, charging J——n Bra——d with acting meanly in his poſt of Clerk to the Ringers of St. Michael's Church: The ſaid B——nd, takes this method of anſwering his laſt nonſenſical Epiſtle, which was fraught with invectives of a moſt ſcandalous nature; and his Soliquy, or more properly, ſtupid ALLEGORY, contained neither ſenſe, reaſon, or underſtanding, and only ſerved to ſhew the public, that the Author, Mr. Shallow pate, has not had common Work houſe education.—Alas! poor Minim! when pimping is at laſt become your calling!—But Mr. Printer, to be done with this puſillanimous creature, I ſhould be obliged to thoſe of better learning than I am, to be informed what Hudibraſs meant by the following mixture of words, viz. J—ſays he, ſtands for Juggler,—O for Outlaw'd—S—for Scribler, H—for hang'd——U—for Upſtart, A—for Animal.—He likewiſe ſays, that L—ſtands for Liar, O—for Odious, C—for Coxcomb——K—for Knave, W—for Worſe—O—for Oddity—O—for Ollo, and D—for Dunce. This Conundrum, Mr. Printer, I read when a boy, if not in Hudibraſs, in ſome other book; it has often made me laugh, and indeed I did not know for what; but ſurely, the author had his own meaning, and as ſuch, is given to the Public.

DANIEL BLAKE.

WILLIAM JOHNSON,

Takes this method of informing the PUBLIC,

That he has opened

A SCHOOL,

At the houſe the Cotton houſe was lately kept in, where children and youth of both ſexes, are inſtructed in READING, WRITING, ARITHMETICK, &c. agreeable to the following plan.

I. IN teaching the children to READ, the ſtricteſt regard will be paid to an eaſy, graceful, yet manly pronunciation of the language; and in order to avoid thoſe vicious habits of reading and pronouncing, which they ſo frequently acquire under perſons not properly qualified for initiating them into the firſt principles of literature, he propoſes to take children from their firſt ſetting out.

II. WRITING, he propoſes to teach in that ſimple elegance which is its greateſt ornament, aveiding all unnatural flourithing and uſeleſs decorations.

III. As ſoon as they begin to write, he propoſes to initiate them into the principles of the Engliſh GRAMMAR, in a manner much more eaſy and familiar than that which is generally practiſed, and without much interfering with the ordinary buſineſs of the ſchool.

It is a common, but too well grounded complaint, that a grammatical ſtudy of our own language ſeldom makes any part of the ordinary method of inſtructing youth in our Engliſh ſchools. To this neglect may juſtly be attributed the great incorrectneſs obſervable amongſt almoſt all ranks of people in ſpeaking and writing their native language: To remedy which, to teach the children to ſpeak and write with propriety, is the point the propoſer has in view; and experience has aſſured him that he has no reaſon to doubt of ſucceſs.

IV. ARITHMETICK he teaches in all its branches, both vulgar and decimal, together with Merchants Accompts, Trigonometry, and all the PRACTICAL BRANCHES of the MATHEMATICKS, ſuch as Gauging, Surveying and Navigation with the theory and practice of which he is well acquainted.

V. At leiſure hours, without much interfering with the buſineſs of the ſchool, he propoſes to teach the children of both ſexes the ELEMENTS of GEOGRAPHY, by tracing out the boundaries, relative ſituations, latitude and longitude of all the kingdoms and countries of the world; giving, at the ſame time, a ſuccinct account of their trade, cuſtoms and manners: To which will be added, all the principal problems in the Uſe of the GLOBES.

VI. A courſe of experiments in MECHANICS will likewiſe be exhibited, in which will be explained the conſtruction, uſe and advantage, of the ſix mechanic powers, viz. the lever, the wheel and axle, (commonly called the axis in peritrochio) the pully, the inclined plane, the wedge, and the ſcrew, with their application to many important purpoſes in human life.

VII. A courſe of lectures on ſelect ſubjects in NATURAL PHILOSOPHY will alſo be exhibited, at proper ſeaſons of vacation, as well for the inſtruction of the youth as of perſons of riper years; to which his pupils will be admitted as a reward for their diligence and application to their ſtudies, and to encourage them to proceed therein; but principally to cultivate in their tender minds a love of knowledge, and a taſte for inquiring into the works of nature.

As the above PLAN of ENGLISH EDUCATION is intended for general utility, the propoſer flatters himſelf with the hope of meeting with encouragement, as he aſſures thoſe parents and guardians who may be pleaſed to favour him with the care of inſtructing their children, that nothing ſhall be wanting on his part, that care and diligence, added to ſome conſiderable degree of experience, can ſupply, in order to bring the children forward in their learning, and to make their ſtudies agreeable to them.
